Icrp Publication 45 Quantitative Bases Developing a Unified Index of Harm. ICRP Publication 45. Ann. ICRP 15 (3). Abstract - In 1977, the International Commission on Radiological Protection issued ICRP Publication 27, "Problems Involved in Developing an Index of Harm". That report discussed the difficulties of making an appropriate comparison of radiation and other effects and suggested a quantitative index to take account of the length of life or full activity lost as a result of occupational causes.
