Others may refer you to the city clerk's office, a code enforcement or planning department, or to a local public library to view the code. You may not always find the code online due to copyright restrictions from the publisher. Please note that the library cannot help determine which codes apply to your specific project. Building Codes - Texas State Law Library In early 2018, the remains of 95 people were found in Sugar Land, Texas, as construction was underway on a new technical center in the Fort Bend Independent School District. The bodies—aged from 14 to 70, male except for one, and accompanied by chains and bricks—were buried in unmarked graves between 1878 and 1911. All [...]
